

I am opposed to any changes in FCC rules that allow more than one local media providers to be owned by one company. I also think that companies should not be allowed to own more than one television station. The proposed change in rules encourages monopolies and is an affront to democracy. Please reconsider it.

Thank you.

Lisabeth Hock